

WOMEN'S BUSINESS COUNCIL

ST. CHARLES
Area
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Women's Business Council bridges professional women with industry-related information and leadership development in the community and business.

Why should you attend?

Business leaders and mentors wear many hats and consistently adapt to the most challenging circumstances.

Today's professionals lead, volunteer, inspire and support. Through it all, we empower each other to succeed, shine and make a difference as women in business within the community. Join the WBC and be a part of our cause

- Quarterly events, live or virtual with relevant topics, impactful speakers and engaging activities
- Provide networking opportunities for women at various stages in their career paths
- Fundraise for local charities through the calendar year
- Engagement in initiatives related to empowerment of women in business

Joining a committee is not only a way to participate and help shape the business the community but also proved to be a great way to forge the long-term relationships with business peers and community leaders. The WBC offers a wide array of committees that are sure to peak your interest.
